THOUGHTS AND THANKS FROM SARALYN

October is domestic violence awareness month. This column is dedicated to the courageous women who call AWARE’s hotline or walk through AWARE’s doors, looking to free themselves from their partner’s control, and from the isolation and emotional abuse they are experiencing. I ask each of you reading this to support AWARE’s mission in whatever way fits for you— it might be sending a donation to AWARE or volunteering your time; it might be wearing the purple ribbon of domestic violence awareness or donating an item for AWARE’s Women of Distinction silent auction; it might be coming to an awareness event or calling AWARE and asking how you can best help a friend. I ask this because providing effective intervention and critical prevention is a job for a community— AWARE can’t do it alone— we need each of you, in your own special way, to share in our work of empowering those whose power has been taken from them, so that each of us may become our very best self.
WE WELCOME NEW FACES...

SARAH ARNTSON—EDUCATION SPECIALIST
My name is Sarah Arntson and I am so excited to begin work with AWARE as the new Education Specialist! I am so thrilled about this position because it enables me to bring my passion for children, social justice, women's issues, and education together in a unique and fun way. I hail from the high in the Rocky Mountains of Colorado originally, so Juneau presents some exciting new challenges for me (the rain, the ocean, the time it takes for water to boil...) I earned a B.A. in Studio Art at the College of Saint Benedict in Minnesota, before being selected by Teach For America to teach on the Navajo reservation in New Mexico. My experience in college guiding wilderness trips brought me and my chocolate lab Elway (Go Broncos!) to Juneau for a 20-day trip in 2007, and again as an Americorps member for SAGA's Eagle Valley Center this past spring. Those experiences, along with my personal interest in all things "outdoors", led to the decision to put down some roots in Juneau. I feel fortunate that my journey has led me to such an amazing place to work and live and I truly look forward to spending more time in this extraordinary community!

JESSICA BROWN—JESUIT VOLUNTEER
Well hello, my name is Jessica Brown and I am one of the new Jesuit volunteers in town. I have the pleasure of working as an advocate at AWARE for this upcoming year. My roots are in Cleveland, Ohio; however over the past couple years I have left pieces of myself in Boston on the Charles, Yosemite on the high sierra granite, Oxford in the Bodleian, and Spain on the Camino de Santiago. I am a recent graduate of Fairfield University in Connecticut, but I am eager to explore the southeast and immerse myself in the Jesuit Volunteer Corps' four values of social justice, community, simple living, and spirituality within the greater communities of Juneau and AWARE. Thank you to all at AWARE who have already offered so much support. I look forward to learning a little more each day.
NICKI ERNST—OFFICE ASSISTANT
My name is Nicki and I am proud to introduce myself as the new office assistant here at AWARE! I moved to Juneau recently from the flat farm land of Louisiana and am extremely excited to begin a new chapter of my life here in the beautiful mountains of Alaska. I graduated from University of Louisiana at Monroe with a B.A. in Psychology. I have one child, a black Labrador named Annie. I feel a great energy whenever I step into AWARE’s building and I know I’m involved in something that is GREAT! This is going to be a great opportunity for myself, and I am ready to explore all the challenges that lay ahead.

EMILY RAVELLE ~ AMERICORPS VOLUNTEER
Emily Ravelle hails from Philadelphia, PA, the city of brotherly love, and is excited to be expressing her sisterly love as the new Americorps member at AWARE. Emily will be assisting the Children’s Program and doing shelter advocacy while also taking classes toward a Masters in Public Health through the University of Alaska, Anchorage. For the past two years, Emily has travelled through the state of Alaska working odd jobs in odd places, and is happy to call Juneau and AWARE (if temporarily) home.

JUNE DEGNAN—DELTA PROGRAM SPECIALIST
I became part of AWARE, Inc in mid-July of 2008 as the DELTA Program Specialist. I am happy to interact with the staff, clients and the community of Juneau and work with everyone towards positive results in Healthy Relationships and Violence Prevention. I am an Alaskan by birth and hold a number of educational and employment experiences in different areas that I am sharing in our community. Living in Juneau is a choice and I find joy in my life and work here. Additionally one day per week, I am employed at the University of Alaska SE as a Reference Librarian at the Egan Library on Sunday afternoon. There I keep my Masters in Library and Information Science (MLIS) active and am able to connect to others locally, nationally and globally on issues that pertain to achieving a lasting.

Rock Out With Your Sockets Out!

AWARE was made warmer and brighter, thanks to the creative fund raising and event coordination of goodwill ambassador, Will Muldoon, and the Rendezvous’ Eric Emert. On June 6th The Rendezvous hosted Rock Out with Your Sockets Out!, an evening of wine tasting, silent auction, raffle and music to raise funds to support some of Juneau’s charities during our electricity cost surge. AWARE is grateful to have received $1000 to help keep the lights on AWARE’s mission during Juneau’s energy cost crisis.

Will and Eric combined efforts to organize talent and sponsors whom we would also like to thank for your community awareness, your rallying response to helping others during challenging circumstances, and your generosity and fun spirit in making a time of difficulty into a celebration to help others.

THANK YOU TO THE NORTH PACIFIC UNION CONFERENCE OF WOMEN’S MINISTRIES!

The North Pacific Union Conference of Women’s Ministries were 50 women strong when they landed on the Westerdam in Juneau August 8th and offered a day of service to various agencies around Juneau including AWARE. Five women, Cheri Gatton, Jackie Johnson, Margie S. Rice, Mable Dunbar and Carla Baker signed up to spend their vacation on a cruise retreat port to offer their service at every port they docked. These women, directors of their area ministries in the northwest spread out through the AWARE facility gardening, washing the vehicles, cleaning the storage rooms and preparing a meal for the women and children of the residence.

Thank you to the women of the Women’s Ministries Retreat Cruise for spreading your generosity AWARE and throughout South East Alaska. What a generous gift!
Domestic Violence Awareness Month
Calendar of Events

“A Man Thing”: If you are a man who values respect, safety, and dignity for all women, now is the time to act. Women pioneered the movement to end domestic and sexual violence. Men now have the opportunity to work with women toward a safer future. Join AWARE on November 6th at 5:30 for “A Man Thing.” Bring ideas and willingness to participate in anti-violence programming.
Pain
It’s everywhere
Washing over me
Like a giant crashing surf
Pushing and pulling me Back and forth
Tossing me up Down the Shoreline of life
With unsteady limbs
I try to stabilize myself
The mind attempting
To find a balance
The heart seeking harmony
As violence once again
Strikes a final blow
Murder and suicide
In a domestic war
That robbed our family
Of two members
Yesterday
A sleepless night
A tragic trauma
I can’t seem to shake
As the dawn turns
Into daylight
Shaken, rattled, and prayerful
I face a new day
Searching for answers
That evades me
The pain increasing
With a multiplier effect
Packing a massive wallop
On my friends, family
And community
Pain-sorrow-grief
All part of life
I pray, pray and pray
Those answers will come
When the time is ripe

ADVOCACY TRAINING WRAPS UP

AWARE just concluded it biannual volunteer training, Twenty-three people attended the first half of the training, where we covered the dynamics of domestic violence, advocacy basics, cultural diversity and a number of other issues related to the tasks we perform at AWARE. Those attending included people representing a number of local social service agencies, as well as new volunteers and staff, and interested community members.

During the second half of the training, about a dozen volunteers and staff covered the more in-depth issues facing the workers at AWARE. Topics included the Sexual Assault Response Team, helping write Protective Orders, working with clients with disabilities and how to conduct an intake.

While we had a record turnout for the training, it also represented contributions by many staff members, who gave up evenings and weekends to conduct the presentations, which took place over three weeks. Facilitator Swarupa Toth said the training is a big commitment for staff, but serves two vitally important functions. It both trains new staff and educates community members about the many tasks performed by AWARE, and the role that domestic violence plays in many families in our community.

Volunteer Opportunities at AWARE

- Do you love to shop? Do you know the best bargains in town? Join the shopper’s team at AWARE! Each Tuesday morning, a determined saver gets behind the wheel of the AWARE van ready to spend a few hours hunting down the best bargains and the tastiest meals for the women and children residing at AWARE. Good driving record a must!

- We are seeking three fun-loving and responsible child care providers for either Tuesday or Wednesday evening each week from 5:45 pm – 8:10pm. Have fun with children 7 years and under while giving their mothers the opportunity to attend women’s groups at AWARE.

- If you have questions or would like to volunteer, call or email Swarupa at 586-6623, swarupat@awareak.org.

AWARE PHILOSOPHY

We at AWARE believe that all people have a right to live in safe, accepting and peaceful environments. We also believe that people thrive more fully in an atmosphere free of fear and violence. However, there exists in our society a system of power, control and domination which suppresses these rights and perpetuates violence, particularly against women and children. This system consists, in part, of a range of behaviors from sex role stereotyping to battering and rape which inhibit the growth and development of human lives and can result in death. AWARE works toward eliminating this societal and personal violence.

We believe in a woman’s right to choose a self-determined lifestyle, in her ability to act in her own best interests and in her need to develop self-esteem. A woman’s body is her own and is not to be treated as the possession of another. We know that the claiming of personal identify and power is necessary to move beyond an oppressive system. We believe in the unity and strength of women to work towards this end through mutual sharing of experience and information. By offering women and children safety and positive alternatives to abusive situations we help to create a community where all can flourish.
AWARE’s mission is to provide safe shelter and supportive services for women and children who have been subjected to domestic or sexual violence; and to effect the social, political and legal changes needed to eliminate oppression and violence against women and children.
